COVID Vaccine Information Outreach

- African Americans have been disproportionately impacted by COVID-19. Federal data shows that African Americans and Latinx in the U.S. have been three times more likely to contract COVID-19 than white residents, and nearly twice as likely to die from it.
- Seven in ten (68%) in the Black community report knowing someone who has been infected with coronavirus. Four in ten (38%) say they know someone who has died from coronavirus complications, including 15% who have had a family member pass away.
